ORDER DISMISSING CASE

The above-referenced chapter 7 case came before the Court on November 2, 2017, for a hearing on the United States Trustee's Motion to Dismiss Case Pursuant to Section 707(a) (the "Motion") [Docket No. 28]. The record reflects the United States Trustee filed and served the Motion on October 19, 2017. The United States Trustee contends in the Motion that cause exists for dismissal of the case pursuant to 11 U.S.C. § 707(a) due to debtor's failure to comply with her duties as stated in 11 U.S.C. § 521.

Despite repeated opportunities to do so, the debtor has failed to produce to the chapter 7 trustee or to the United States Trustee proof of identification. Accordingly, the United States Trustee contends that cause exists for dismissal of the case due to the fact that the debtor has taken advantage of the benefits of filing a bankruptcy petition, without performing the elemental duties required of debtors.

At the call of the calendar, David S. Weidenbaum appeared on behalf of the United States Trustee. Germani G. Hunt, counsel for debtor, appeared at the hearing and announced that there was no basis to oppose the relief requested by the United States Trustee. The debtor did not appear at the hearing. The Court, having reviewed the record in the case, finds sufficient cause to grant the unopposed Motion and dismiss the case. Accordingly, it is ORDERED that this case is DISMISSED.
